SIGHTS AND
SOUNDS OF 1970
encompassed the lives of the 1250
inhabitants of Hammond High School.

ed beyond the earth, yet students continued to hear cries of protest and oppression from their peers.

Familiar sights and sounds—the flag rippling on a windy day, stomachs growling during fourth hour, lockers slamming—pervaded the perceptions of all Hammond High'ers.

Whether at home, at school, at work, at play or on the go, Cats acknowledged 1970 as a year to see, a year to hear.

Sights at school:
circles of friendly faces gathered around lockers, pigeons peeking
through windows.
Sounds at school:
feet shuffling to classes, morning
"hi's" exchanged
among friends, bells signaling the end of another day.

Inseparable, they blended into vitality of Wildcatdom.

Psychedelic sights in the main landing and front windows portray yule spirit as Odestress McCoy travels to class.

Empty stairway offers Nancy Reba and Dennis Wagner a moment of solitude.

Ring of the bell explodes hallway into a scramble of scholars scurrying toward their next hour classes.

Summoned in a familiar fashion, firemen and assistant principal Mr. Dennis Burdock investigate alarm box after another unscheduled fire drill.

Sounds of silence and concentration dominate the basement hallway as Mike Geiger, Larry Carter and Tony Mercer make up geometry class assignments.

Sibling rivalry gives way to cooperation as Carolyn Tapper and brother Kent share dinner dishwashing duty.

Leashing the way home, Dedra Vergin directs Duchess and Heidi into home walk.

Since rock music permeates almost all teen pastimes, Laura Clayton discovers an album for at home leisure-listening.

Lounging on the living room floor, Mark Norden does his homework for German.

Ignoring parental protests, Marianne Lamm monopolizes the family phone to catch up on the latest school gossip.

Homes filled with the resonance of recreation and responsibility: the clatter of dirty dishes, silence of study, shouts of "Take out the garbage," or requests of "Can I borrow the car tonight?"

Behind delicatessen counter in Goldblatt's basement, Carole Gregas weighs balloon of salami.

Student employees recognized sights and sounds of the business world. Bulging grocery bags, "May-I-help-you's," clanging cash registers and gas pumps became part of the workers' perceptions.

Like many HHS males, carryout boy Stan Stewart bags groceries at store.

Groundskeeping responsibilities put John Steele behind the wheel of a snowblower at city's First United Methodist Church.

Restrunging tennis rackets, Dick Kitchell turns a hobby into profitable self-employment in his basement workshop.

Headquartered at a carrel in the main Hammond public library, Kathy Michaw retreats to a favorite HHS study site.

Carrying out a post-game, post-dance, lunch or evening ritual, Jerry Beaman orders his carload's burgers, fries, cokes at a counter service restaurant.

"Two, please," says Jack Cotton escorting Darlene Emerson to an early evening showing of "Topaz" at one of the downtown Hammond movie theaters.

Slumber partying Bev Brauer, LaVonne King, Denise Sostaric, Marilyn King and Sara Seddelmeyer settle in for all-night hours of giggles and gossip.

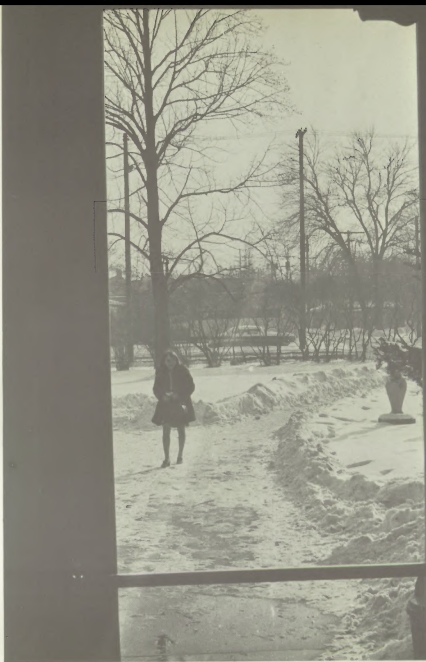

Evening of prankstering leaves a southside house festooned with TP garlands.

Crowds converging on Mac's parking lot, pulsating beat of a soc hop band, "Hamburger, fries and a coke," giggles among friends—getting away from home, classes, work, Wildcats reveled in the pastime known as messing around.

Wildcat cage rally enfrenzies fans in a familiar winter Friday night pastime.

Returning from fifth hour lunch break, Margaret Bukatko treads up south path.

Loaded down with books and pompon paraphernalia, Diane Pittman and June Bukowski climb into car.

Adjusting the engine, Nathan Haines wheelies his motorcycle into starting.

Hitching rides south on Calumet Ave., Randy Haizlip and John Stagl rely on thumbs to get them home from school.

With no money for getting home, Jackie Patrick accepts schoolbus passenger Wendy Thon's offer to share a ticket.

Vroooming motorcycles, roaring buses, trudging feet, honking horns, standstill freight trains—Wildcats on the move encountered bustling sights and sounds everywhere their adventures took them.

Activities

Subways rumbling under the streets of New York City, drums rolling to hail announcement of the homecoming queen, actors memorizing parts for the all-school play, columns forming for grand march climaxing prom, auditorium goes in-toning the pledge of allegiance—sights and sounds of ACTIVITIES.

Tech disorders force HHS to switch homecoming plans

Hoping to avoid trouble from outsiders, authorities from HHS and Tech agreed to change homecoming events from night to afternoon Oct. 3. Game rival Hammond Tech had had trouble earlier in the week.

To prelude homecoming day, Association planned Spirit Week with Karen Mauder identifying Don Simerly as the secret Wildcat Monday, Les Dreischerf and John DeGuilio winning on wild tie day Tuesday, Cynthia Thomas finding a free game ticket in a popcorn bag Wednesday and Kathy Zenos discovering hidden football in a trash can Thursday.

Because of homecoming's rescheduling, classes could not complete floats on time. Thus Association eliminated float judging and awarded each class $6. Junior Angel Mi-ofsky's car won as best decorated.

To climax the week, Association president Max Anderson crowned Marie Safin homecoming queen during halftime. Robin Keightley and Mona Shaw served as senior princesses in Marie's court with Connie Brooks reigning as junior princess, Candi Polovina as soph princess, Crystal Burns as freshman princess.

After a 16-0 loss to Tech, Association sponsored a soc hop at Civic Center. Paying a dollar admission fee, Wildcats danced to the music of The Hartford Convention.

Crowned, enthroned, beflowered, Mimi Safin reigns as queen at homecoming.

Heading his file, sousaphonist Mike Stadnik marches into halftime show.

Court and escorts—Mike Bochnowski; Robin Keightley, senior princess; Garry Adams; Marie Safin, queen; Joe Nicksic; Mona Shaw, senior princess.

Court and escorts—Terrill Cheatham; Crystal Burns, freshman princess; David Coleman; Candi Polovina, sophomore princess; Jim Lauer; Connie Brooks, junior princess.

51 Wildcats explore sights of US capital

Writing her way home, Connie Fultz scrawls on a friend's souvenir pillow.

As typical tourists, Linda Gaskey and Mona Shaw exchange photo tips before Linda snaps pictures at Mt. Vernon.

Cold wind welcomed 51 Wildcats to the capital as they started the first phase of the Washington-New York trip Oct. 21-27. The 38 girls, 13 boys and chaperon joined 500 other Hammond upperclassmen.

This year's tour added Mt. Vernon and the FBI. Before going to the White House, tourists saw the Shah of Iran helicopter from the south lawn. Because of repairs, students couldn't visit the Jefferson Memorial. Girls lodged at the Hotel Harrington while boys stayed at the Manger-Annapolis Hotel.

Instead of taking the train, the students bussed to New York and stayed in the Hotel McAlpin. They saw the UN, Statue of Liberty and "Hail Hero" at Radio City.

Cobblestones pave the way back to the chartered buses for Mt. Vernon visitors Mike Stadnik, Paul Surowiec and Jim Lenz.

Jennings directs three-act all-school play

In his first year at HHS, Mr. Garland Jennings directed the all-school play, "Rest Assured," Nov. 21. The three-act play by Donald Payton told what happened when a man forbade his daughter to marry the son of an Italian meat cutter.

Dramatics clubbers applied make-up while business committee, headed by Pamela Mitchell, sold tickets.

Butting in to harmonize domestic relations, Mildred the maid (Rebecca Crawford), chides her employer, Mr. Morlock (Herb Bittick), for neglecting his family.

After forbidding his daughter to marry a butcher's son, Mr. Morlock (Herbert Bittick) embodies his disapproval by clouting Luigi Lanconi (Mike Juergens).

Pausing backstage before an entrance, Arvil Scott listens to onstage lines as Mr. Garland Jennings tests mike.

Senior class presents play about Charly

Assisted by six underclassmen, seniors presented their class play, "Flowers for Algernon," March 20.

Mr. Garland Jennings directed the two-act play by David Rogers.

Story centered around an experiment to increase the intelligence of Algernon, a mouse, and Charly Gordon, a mentally retarded adult.

Play production commenced with tryouts at the end of the first semester. Mr. Jennings then distributed parts the first week of February. Lack of participants caused actors to double up on roles.

Prop, publicity, ticket, makeup and program committees assisted in the production. Senior girls took tickets and ushered.

Repairs move inauguration outside for year's first auditorium session

Welcoming county prosecutor Mr. Henry Kowalczyk, Mr. Bob Brock outlines procedures for auditorium about drugs.

Drugs, dress, music, government, brotherhood and sports provided subjects for auditorium sessions.

Because of auditorium repairs, Association inauguration moved to the football field in September.

Lake County prosecutor Mr. Henry Kowalczyk discussed drug abuse in October. Administrative briefing in November preceded the opening of dress code moratorium.

Vocalists gave winter and spring programs. Human Relations emphasized brotherhood in February. Pep sessions, Association week and honors day completed the calendar.

Before the open-air inaugural auditorium, Mike Kozlowski, aided by Dr. F. K. Feuerbach, connects mike wire.

Portraying Santa Claus and his reindeer, Twila Burns, Kenny Hill, Elizabeth Hernandez and Bonnieta Rarick appear during vocalists' Christmas auditorium.

HHS's float wins second in Hammond

In addition to comprising the student governmental body, Association sponsored homecoming week Sept. 29 to Oct. 3 and a Christmas float in the city parade Dec. 6.

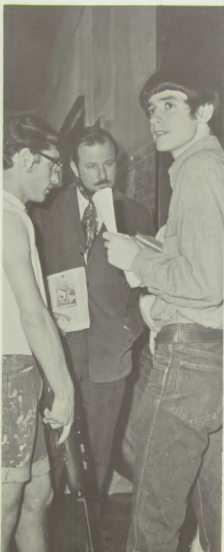

"Peace in the World" themed the float, which won $100 second prize.

"Awareness of Youth" titled 1969 Association Week. Activities included mud tug; sweatshirt-bermuda, identity, class colors, dress up, grub days; slave auction; senior-faculty game; and a tricycle race. Juniors and freshmen prevailed over seniors and sophomores in tricycle race.

Pitting their strength against the freshmen in a contest that climaxed grub day during the 1969 Association Week, sophomores emerge as victors of the mud tug.

Doing their own thing, Rich Alishio, Mr. Ray Ball and Mike Firman observe identity day in '69 Association week.

Stuffing chicken wire with newspaper, Mr. Ray Ball, Eunice Burns, Mimi Safin and Nancy Norden construct HHS's float entry for the Hammond Christmas parade.

Class of '70 hosts couples at '69 dance

Hosted by the class of '70, 120 couples gathered "Under the Sweetheart Tree" for junior-senior prom at the Scherwood Club May 9, 1969.

Promsters danced to the music of Johnnie Nolan's band. The Gass, a rock group, played at post prom after couples had dined buffet style.

Headed by co-chairmen Nancy Reba and Nancy Norden, decorating committee turned prom site into a garden of flowers and fountains. Borrowing the decorations for a Mothers Day party, Scherwood Club deducted $100 from the bill.

Planting mushrooms, Mona Shaw and Bev Maurer decorate under sweetheart tree.

Selecting salads, Denise Charbak and Frank Vargas relish the PTA-sponsored post-prom buffet at the Scherwood Club.

Testing fountain, prom decorations co-chairman Nancy Reba quenches thirst.

HHS honors 300 seniors in annual rite

Led by class co-valedictorians Charles Haley and Dave Schmueser, 300 '69 grads finished their HHS years with traditional activities.

Begowned graduates gathered at Civic Center June 1 for the Rev. Eugene Douglass' baccalaureate sermon, "Truth Makes You Free."

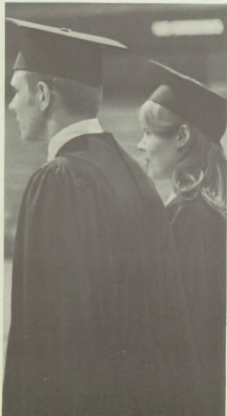

"Yesterday, Today and Tomorrow" served as theme for the senior-faculty banquet at Teibel's June 2.

Students dominated commencement June 5 with Association vice president Guy Smith giving the invocation, co-valedictorian Charles Haley delivering the graduation address and Association president Bill McHie giving the benediction.

"Pomp and Circumstance" ushers grads into Civic Center.

Following tradition, president Dave Schmueser and secretary Denise Paluck lead the graduation processional.

Under the direction of Mrs. Nancy Jacobs, choirs sing "No Man Is an Island."

Academicians, journalists, scientists

Senior scholastic leaders—LeeAnne Myers, valedictorian; LaVonne King, salutatorian.

Indiana U. foreign honors program—FRONT ROW: Don Creasbaum, Louisa Hurt.

merit awards

Students earned laurels in music, science, languages and journalism.

In April, Indiana U. foreign language honors program announced Don Creasbaum and Louisa Hurt would spend summers in France; Gary Osborne and Mr. Tom Schwartz would fly to Germany.

Scientists, senior Ann Palkovich and junior Theodore DuPont, took home gold and silver medals from regional science fair April 4, 5.

Diane Radbel and Bonnie Frevert became outstanding journalists. Dennis Wagner won Arion award.

In National Merit testing, four seniors earned commendation letters while two qualified as finalists.

National Merit winners—FRONT ROW: April Williams, letter; LaVonne King, finalist; Monica Leeney, letter. ROW TWO: Don Johnsen, finalist; Nancy Norden, letter; Michael Juergens, letter.

Senior girls' award winners—Marie Safin, DAR good citizenship award; April Williams, Betty Crocker homemaker of tomorrow.

Girls, Boys State—FRONT ROW: Dave Moll, Alison Blaine, Randi Lammering.
ROW TWO: LaVonne King, Dennis Wagner, April Williams.

After spending eight summer weeks in helping with conditioned reflex experiments on mice, Ann Palkovich turns to her project for the science fair.

Yearbook institutes: Mary Leas, Ball State U.; Monica Leeney, Indiana U.; Faye Rhyne, Nicki Solan, BSU; Bonnie Frevort, IU.

20 Wildcats stretch studies into vacations

Expanded classroom and extra-curricular interests sent Wildcats to summer institutes at colleges.

Five Dunes and five Herald staff members attended journalism institutes at Ball State and Indiana U.

Also attending programs at IU were Max Anderson, Mimi Safin and Eunice Burns, representing Association at a leadership institute.

Boys and Girls State claimed five seniors for week programs in June.

Extending studies, Karen Kicho toured Russia; Ann Palkovich assisted an IU psychology professor.

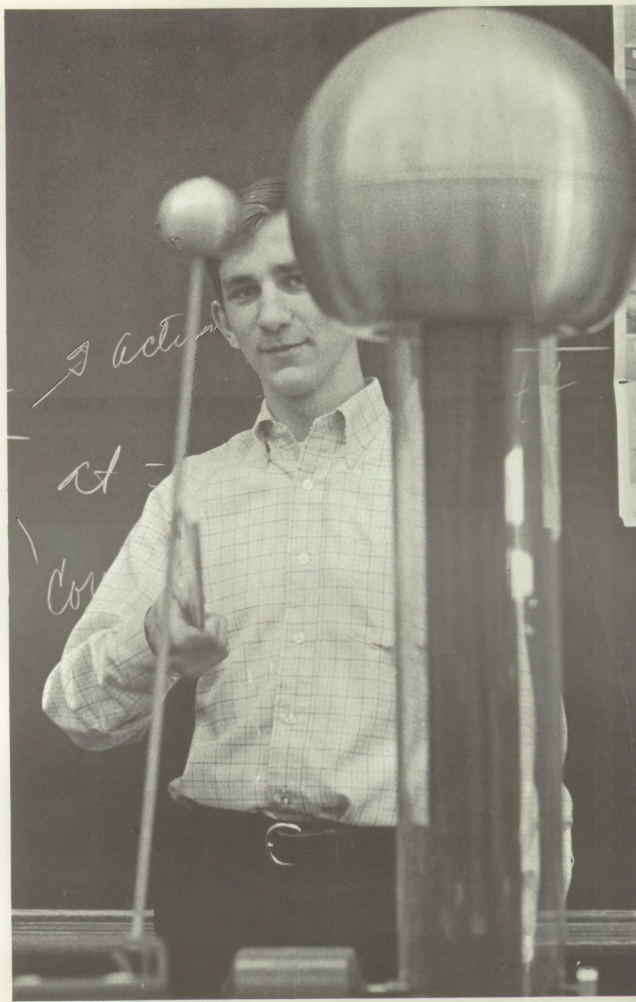

Indiana U. leadership institute—Mimi Safin, Eunice Burns.

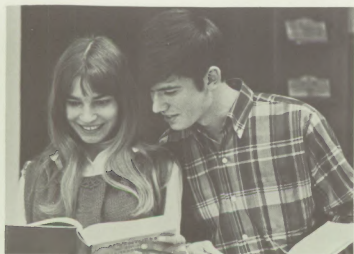

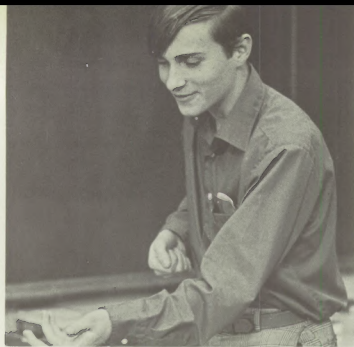

Newspaper institutes—Denise Walker, Pat Helm, Ball State U.; Sharon Eichmann, Sandi Costley, Diane Radbel, Indiana U.

After taking a church-sponsored tour of the Soviet Union, Karen Kicho unpacks souvenirs to show classmates.

Academics

Sewing machines whirring, chalk screeching against a blackboard, linguists droning in the language lab, an orator stumbling through his first speech, fluorescent lights humming over math test takers, clarinets tweedling, typewriters clacking, papers rustling—sights and sounds of ACADEMICS.

School board slashes budget for summer

Summer of 1969 found HHS, Clark and Morton as the only Hammond schools with summer classes.

Surplus of students from Tech and Gavit went to HHS. Usual enrollment of 700 increased to 988 with 500 from HHS, 300 from Tech and the rest from Gavit and Morton.

Teachers from Hammond, Tech and Gavit taught courses ranging from vocational world history to driving and automobile service.

Decreased funds reduced number of driver ed cars so that only students over 16 years old could join.

Getting required general math behind her, Jeannie Pouch hits on an answer.

Advice for algebra student John Taylor comes from teacher Miss Alice Bollin.

Leaving traffic behind, novice drivers return to safety in the HHS parking lot.

Inquiring students Candy Niederbrach and Janice Rudy take note as frosh counselor Mr. Fred Monberg starts cassette tape outlining grads' college views.

Grads' tapes give opinions about college

Tending to students' needs in and out of the classroom were offices on all three floors of HHS.

On the top floor in February, the library displayed its collection of Negro history materials.

Guidance office on the main floor offered a new service with cassette tapes on which HHS grads commented on college experiences.

Nurse's office in the basement checked ailments, screened frosh, applied fluoride to volunteers, administered state-required TB skin tests to seniors and adults.

Aiding in the nurse's office, Esperanza Mellado reads Peggy Maurer's temp after complaints of sore throat.

Amidst a display of modern plays, Bob Lowe compiles a report in the library.

Paperbacks, records help grammarians

Addition of more than $200 worth of new books, filmstrips and records helped English teachers to vary their presentation methods.

Stimulating student creativity, comp teachers played recordings and showed filmstrips about mechanics and perspectives of writing.

Paperback books including "Merchant of Venice," "A Connecticut Yankee in King Arthur's Court" and "Death of a Salesman" aided literature students in completing their outside reading assignments.

Journeying to Michael Todd Theater in Chicago Dec. 5, Mrs. Margaret Mertens' English lit classes saw movie "Goodbye Mr. Chips."

Deliberating the pros and cons of American involvement in Viet Nam, Comp V students John Stagl and Marvin Reynolds toss around ideas for Marvin's term paper.

Typifying a henpecked husband, Walter Mitty (Terrell Cheatham) escapes Darlene Artis's incessant nagging by daydreaming his car into a Navy airplane that is hurtling through a hurricane.

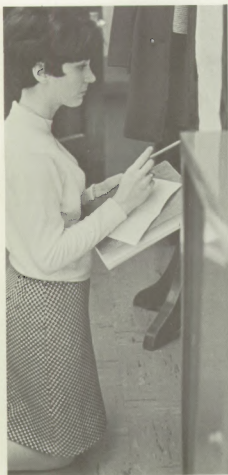

Compiling the working bibliography for her Comp 5 term paper about reincarnation, junior Patty Marrero thumbs through the card catalogue for references.

Acting out an excerpt from Steinbeck's "The Gift" in frosh English class, Mr. Tiflin (Clara Foster) offers some hay to the horse, Gabilan (Walter Okichich).

Emoting for his senior literature class, Odestress McCoy soliloquizes a passage from Shakespeare's Hamlet.

Consulting the ladder for unwritten pages, copy editor Monica Leoney lists journalism class assignments.

Dunes wins yearbook triple crown

Intending to illustrate "Ode on a Grecian Urn" for an English literature picture, photography editor JoAnne Keeler leafs for the Keats poem in Beverly Maurer's textbook.

Composing cutlines, Dennis Hensley and Eunice Burns resort to Roget's Thesaurus in search of a stronger verb.

Selecting "Sights and Sounds of '70" as their theme, 1970 Dunes staff began work in spring '69 after their appointment. Planning continued in summer with Nicki Solan, Mary Leas and Faye Rhyne going to a Ball State U. workshop.

Monica Leeney and Bonnie Frevert went to Indiana U., where both won honorable mentions for work.

News of the 1969 yearbook's national triple crown—A+, Medalist, All-American—arrived in the fall.

Because of increased ad sales, staff expanded the book from 176 to 180 pages. They made further appearance changes by tightening inside white space, enlarging headline type, using more bleeds and across-gutter pictures and adding more action pictures to the underclass, senior and club sections.

Underclass staffers went to the National Scholastic Press Assn. convention in Chicago in November and Northern Indiana Journalism Seminar in Valparaiso in April.

In an editor-adviser encounter, Bonnie Frevert consults with Miss Judy Richter about a prop for an action shot.

Herald wins All American, stresses in-depth coverage

Challenged by an All American rating for spring '69 issues, Herald staffers went on to earn their own top rating for fall semester.

Five staff members had attended two-week summer journalism institutes. Diane Radbel, Sharon Eichmann and Sandi Costley went to Indiana U. while Pat Helm and Denise Walker went to Ball State.

Stressing in-depth coverage of current problems, the staff explored drug abuse. Reports ranged from information about effects to interviews with a former addict, who had established a rehabilitation center in Gary; and with a senior, X, who said he used drugs.

In a six-page special March 13, newspaper studied all phases of pollution, emphasizing the local aspect with photos and interviews.

Next the staff tackled Hammond's railroad problem by interviewing city attorney John Leeney and Sen. Vance Hartke, chairman of a Senate sub-committee.

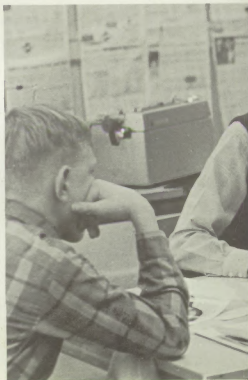

Regular newspaper columns included "Keith Speaks on Sports," "Pop Previews" by Denise Walker.

Having run in from track practice, Keith Speaks writes sports headlines.

During a Tuesday third period newspaper class, Arthur Dietz, Pat Helm, Denise Walker, Joni Sullivan and Diane Radbel make up pages for Friday.

Sending bills to advertisers, business manager Sandi Costley glances toward past issues to check an ad date.

While exchange manager Diana Shoup staples papers for mailing, Sue Weaver compiles copy for Hammond Times.

Tours, talks, trip enhance social studies

Field trips, tours and lectures from employment officials headed social studies department program.

US history classes visited the Chicago Academy of Sciences, the Elks National Memorial Building and the Historical Society Dec. 9.

Led by city clerk Mr. Stanley Kulik, government classes toured the Hammond city hall in January.

Representatives from a local credit bureau and Inland Steel employment department spoke to government and economics classes about credit ratings and employment.

Researching and distributing surveys, sociology students examined racial and social problems, and reported the findings in discussions.

Obliging sociology students Karen Harper, Bob Wiley and Eunice Burns, Mrs. James Carpenter accepts questionnaire about blacks' attitudes in East Hammond.

Touring city hall, government students listen to their guide, city clerk Mr. Stanley Kulik, explain the judicial system.

Relishing an increase in stock quotations, economist Bob Schaertl clips the Wall Street Journal.

Describing poverty, sociologists John Parrish, Doris Green, Kathy Luncsford and Alice Garza invite class questioning.

Guest speakers inform science students of

With topics ranging from drug abuse to careers in chemistry, guest speakers visited science classes.

Mr. Robert Murray, director of the state bureau of health, drugs and narcotics, talked to health and safety classes about drug abuse and alcoholism. Students also asked Patrolman Edward Klapak of the Hammond police department questions about traffic safety.

Visiting chemistry classes, Mr. Alan Carlson, head of the chemical technology department at Purdue Calumet, informed students of the careers available in his field.

Science department added a new ripple tank and wave vibrator to its physics lab equipment. Students in PSSC (Physical Science Study Committee) used the apparatus in understanding wave lengths.

Department offered psychology and advanced biology as electives.

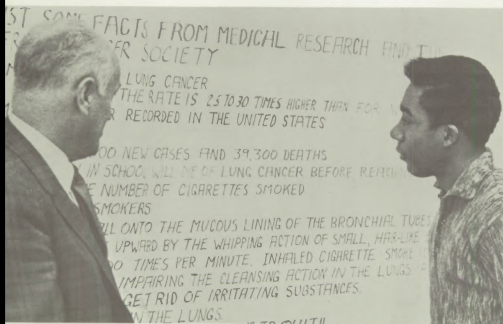

Concave mirror measures the visual perception of juniors Tony Webster and Sue Szany in their psychology class.

Investigating simple plant life, biologist Cynthia Wagner studies microscopic spirogyra.

traffic safety, narcotics abuse

In a class discussion of causes of cancer, health and safety teacher Mr. Robert King cites evidence linking smoking and lung cancer for sophomore Walter Davis.

Dissecting a fetal pig's vital organs, biologists Sherrie Crisp and Barb DeBoe probe the heart.

Frenchwomen

Fiddling with their puppets before a class presentation, Sue McDaniel and Debby Harmon rehearse production of "Cadet Rouselle" in second-year French.

Unpacking crepes, French students Louisa Hurt and Julie Ahlf set up shop at a Kiwanis travelogue at Gavitt High.

Sharpening two skills at the same time, Tom Grant and Tom Singer try their hands at pinochle bids in Russian class.

recall traditions of homeland

Forty-six percent of HHS' students enrolled in one of five foreign languages. Department offered four-year programs in Spanish, German, French, Latin and Russian.

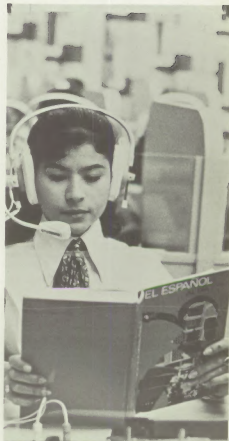

Passing preliminary test Dec. 13, seven French, three Spanish and one German student competed in the Indiana U. honors program. Program offered winners a two-month study in a foreign country.

Two natives of France, Mrs. Suzanne Begnoche and Miss Genevieve Franks visited the fourth year French class to describe their homeland and answer questions.

Foreign language students sold refreshments at Kiwanis travelogues.

Poster depicting sun god Apollo sweeping the sky enlightens Latin student Peter Bednarski's study of mythology.

Hand-crafted family of dolls, souvenirs of Karen Kicho's summer trip to the Soviet Union, entrances second-year Russian students Marian Manzo, Jerry Manzo.

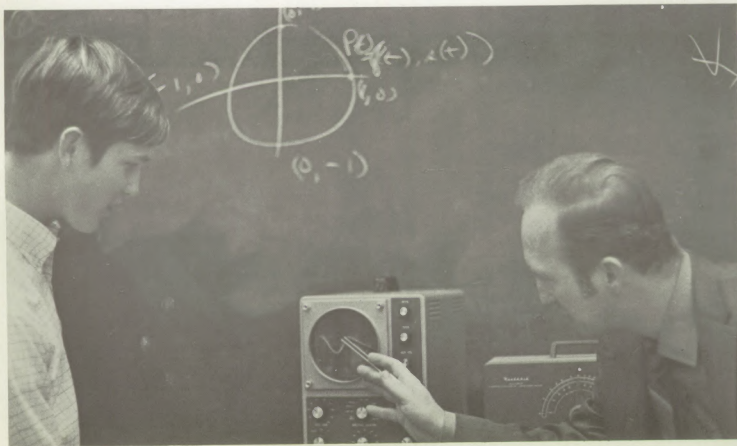

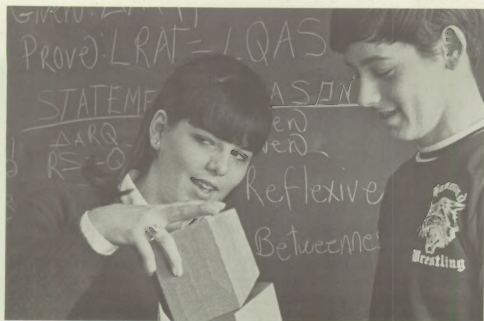

Listening to a taped Spanish I conversation in the language lab, freshman Sandra Garcia follows in her book.

Aligning dominoes, analysts Jerry Beaman and Joe Nicksie prove the principle of math induction.

Analyzing a graph of sine and cosine functions, Mr. Frank Gradisher tracks oscilloscope wave lengths for John House.

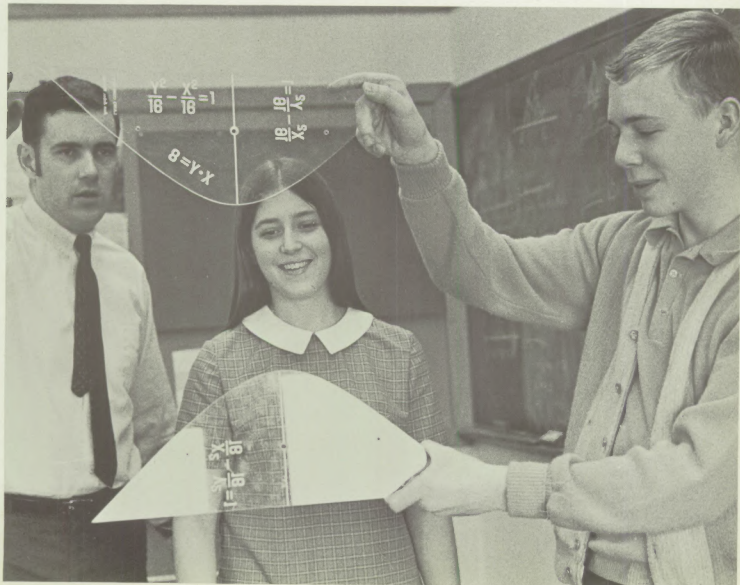

Wooden blocks help to three-dimensionalize the oblique cut of a prism for sophomore geometry students Charlene York and John Burgess.

Top scorers vie in contest for math title

Math department underwent changes in personnel and materials. Under direction of new department head Mr. Wayne Pecher, math instructors evaluated textbooks.

One hundred five students participated in the national mathematics exam in March. The top three scorers represented HHS as a team in statewide competition.

Adjusting plastic graphs, Mr. Tom Feeney and geometrists LeeAnn Haizlip and John Kovach illustrate curve of a parabola.

Lack of enrollees compels omission

Broadening opportunities for business-bound students, commercial department offered classes ranging from typing to management.

Lack of enrollment forced department to drop business law from its second semester curriculum.

Gaining experience with office machinery, clerical practitioners learned how to operate mimeographers, calculators, duplicators and adding and transcribing machines.

Franchises, partnerships and corporations headed discussions for business management classes.

Gregg guides Patty Erwin's shorthand-ed transcription of taped dictation.

Checking a timed writing, Cyndi Duncanson finds a mistake.

Mastery of the full key adding machine challenges senior Linda Bane's skills during her clerical practice class.

of business law class

Rectifying that misprint, Cyndi resorts to a typing eraser.

Developing her dictation taking skill, Paulette McDonald listens to a dictaphone recording of a shorthand chapter.

Typographical error requires Barb Kurzydym to apply correction fluid before remedying her manuscript stencil.

Simplicity catalogue suggests pattern ideas for seamstress Cynthia Gertos' project for Clothing II.

Aproned Debbie Brown and Mrs. Lori Donoho cut potatoes for french fries.

Masculine foods class turns to barbecuing

Garbed in aprons and armed with spatulas, 26 boys stormed the foods room kitchens for an all-male cooking class during second semester.

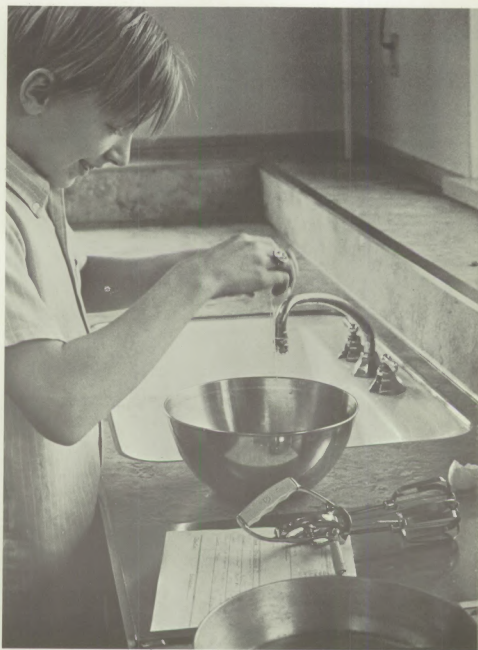

Once they had learned their way around the kitchen, boys turned to outdoor cooking and barbecuing. Other cooking classes made party foods including sloppy joes, pizza, french fries and onion rings.

Keeping up with fashion trends, seamstresses stitched outfits incorporating new styles, lines and fabrics. First-year sewers used silk and silk synthetics to make sleeved dresses. Clothing 3, 4 and 5 classes sewed coats, pant suits, bellbottoms and children's dresses.

Draperies, bedspreads and slipcovers headed Clothing 8 projects.

Ironing out a problem, Donielle Kuipers and Charlene York cover a board.

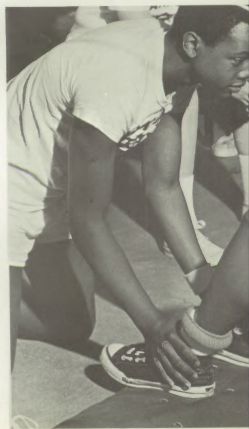

Scrambling eggs for Foods I class, John Duncan follows instructions of recipe.

Steadied by Mrs. Sally Woodrick, Cindy Story teeters into a straddle mount.

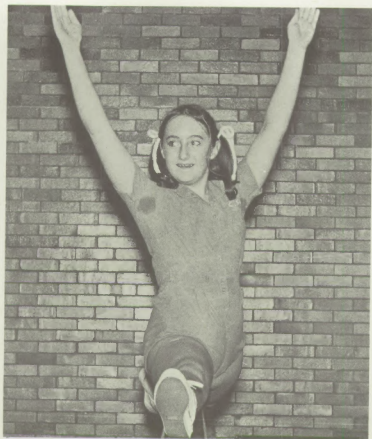

Once positioned on the balance beam, Cindy hesitates into a straddle walk.

PE classes employ exer-genie, trampoline

Gliding into front splits, Cindy completes the routine.

Physical education department replenished its sports equipment with addition of a weightlifting machine and handball apparatus.

Boys Phys ed classes used an exer-genie in performing isometrics. They also played handball, flag football and participated in the President's physical fitness test.

In the pool, boys concentrated on the side, breast and butterfly strokes and the American crawl.

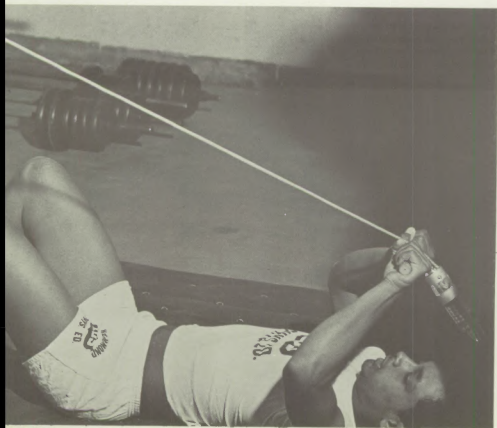

Girls gym classes learned steps in folk dancing and the skills of tumbling. For second semester they moved outside to play softball and to run track and field.

Elementary strokes, diving and basic lifesaving skills headed program for girls swimming classes.

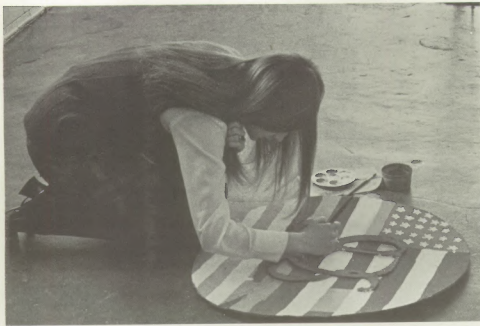

Reaching the ceiling, Don Day begins the downward trek of his rope climb.

Strengthening his abdominal muscles, Edward Mason, steadied by Jeff Morrow, pulls himself up the exer-genie.

Art students supply decor for corridors

SDS sign epitomizes Sue Beard's comments on current social controversies.

Squaring off a Yuletide ornament, April Williams and Jean Potter brush in green, pink and black iridescent paint.

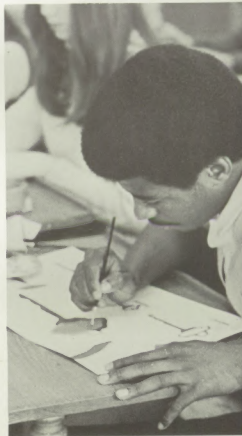

Christmas decorations, auditorium session and field trip headed projects for the art department.

Emphasizing the excitement of Christmas, classes used up art in making yuletide hall decorations. Joined by Expanded Arts Club, they created op window murals, a mod cellophane tree and a showcase of seasons greetings to the faculty.

Jaunting to Chicago Feb. 13, art students explored the Art Institute, the Institute of Design and the contemporary art museum.

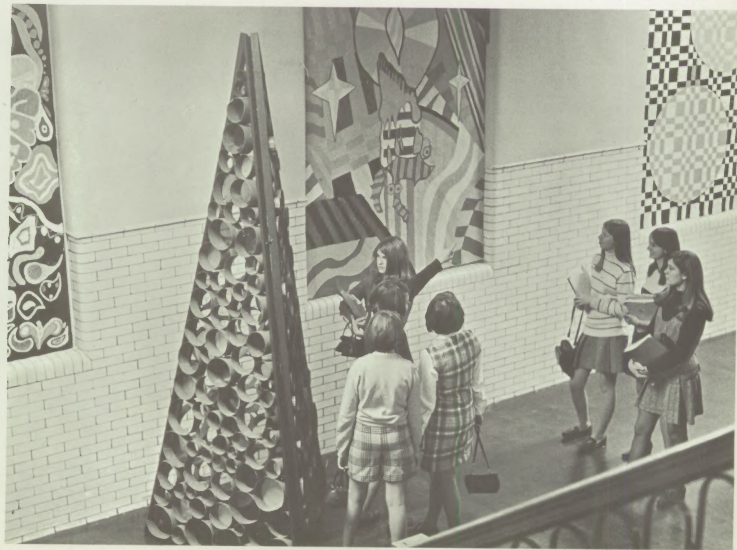

Christmas ornaments provide seasonal psychedelic symbolism for Art 1 student Kenneth Jenkins' fragmentation.

Greetings display lures Kathy Cormican and Jane Mund into finding their favorite teachers' names.

Art department's Christmas decorations on the main landing command students' admiration during the five-minute break.

Concertband gets request for Kiwanis

Journeying to Chicago, Indianapolis and Detroit, bandsmen attended music conventions and performed in concerts and contests.

Band featured a newly formed Dixieland sextet at its winter concert Nov. 7. Musicians also gave a spring concert April 10 and marched in the Downtown Hammond Christmas parade Dec. 6 and the Memorial Day parade May 30.

Marchers entertained football fans during home game halftimes.

Sixty-five bandsmen attended the National Midwest Band Clinic at Chicago's Sherman House Dec. 17. There they listened to lectures and learned marching techniques.

Kiwanis invited concert band to play at its international convention in Detroit June 21-24.

Entering the state solo and ensemble contest at Indianapolis Feb. 21, instrumentalists won 12 firsts and four seconds. To qualify in the state meet, winners had to place first in district competition at Highland High Feb. 7.

Concert band entered state contest at Columbia City April 18.

Revising their system, pompon girls discontinued tryout requirements and eliminated restrictions for the number of participants.

To defray the cost of new skirt and sweater uniforms, girls conducted a slave auction Oct. 29-30.

While attending a clinic at Morton, girls learned four routines. They embodied these routines into five basketball halftime programs.

Joined by the pomponers, twirlers and majorettes accompanied the marching band in halftime formations during home football games.

Novice musicians joined cadet band before entering concert band.

Organizations

Gavel rapping the opening of a meeting, club sponsors commanding "Turn in your IBM cards," Deutchers caroling "Stille Nacht," chessmen checkmating, house reps debating appropriations, bowling pins clattering, guitars twanging, poster paints sloshing—sights and sounds of ORGANIZATIONS.

Dress code abolition sets area precedent

Pioneering the way for other area high schools, HHS abolished its dress code as a result of an Association-sponsored proposal.

In October, Association formed a committee of students, teachers and parents to study existing dress code. After receiving permission from superintendent Dr. Robert Medcalf, group proposed a trial code moratorium Nov. 10 to Dec. 19.

Administration then appointed a faculty-student evaluation committee to review aspects of the trial. Upon request, Dr. Medcalf allowed evaluators to extend the moratorium to Jan. 23, then indefinitely.

Newsman from NBC and channel 50 brought their cameras into HHS halls in December, interviewing students and teachers about their views on the abolished dress code.

In cooperation with the art department, Association updated and redesigned its freshman handbook.

Association sponsored a project to refurbish and replace old paintings and frames in rooms and halls.

Pondering over a possible Association-sponsored dance, leaders Randi Lammers, Eunice Burns, Max Anderson and Mimi Safin consider advertisements for bands.

Honoraries gain members, market banks

Honor societies lauded outstanding speakers, scribes and scholars.

National Honor Society inducted top five percent of the senior class last spring. Next 10 percent gained admission in the fall.

To raise money for an NHS scholarship, club members peddled HHS football helmet banks, donated by the Calumet National Bank. Society also increased its scholarship fund with a talent show April 24.

Forty-four juniors and 50 sophomores composed Junior National Honor Society. Members served as ushers at commencement June 4.

Publications adviser Miss Judy Richter added five outstanding Dunes and Herald staffers to Quill and Scroll, international journalism honorary, second semester.

Members received service pins and awards at the annual publications banquet at San Remo's May 11.

Orators accumulating 25 or more points at speech or debate meets joined National Forensic League.

Adults boost band, athletes; PTA hosts spaghetti dinner

Three adult groups provided service to HHS students and parents.

Adult Booster Club gave three fund-raising dances at Munster Lanes in summer, then hosted the fall and winter sports banquets Nov. 10 and March 24. Club also bought conference champ trophies and sweater stars for the track, tennis and cross country squads.

PTA programs included Back to School Night Oct. 28. As its main fund-raising event, PTA sponsored bake sale, spaghetti supper, faculty play March 6. Profits aided post-prom and a $200 scholarship.

Band Parents chaperoned trips and helped finance them through candy sales. Group also distributed uniforms before appearances.

Serving teachers, teachers' wives and children, PTA members heap on spaghetti.

Checking sizes, Mrs. Clarence Tapper and Mrs. Steve Kicho outfit bandsmen.

Hammond Historical Society treasurer Mr. Warren Reeder relates Hammond history for Adult Booster Club March 9.

Learning about chemistry class, parents follow seniors' schedule through PTA's Back to School Night Oct. 28.

Pastry, pj's fill treasury for GAA'ers

Peddling food and nightshirts and participating in interschool basketball and track occupied GAA.

Mid-winter found the girls sponsoring a lunch hour bake sale.

Basketball season started in January and continued through February. Team met defeat in its first five outings but came back to conquer Griffith 37-26 in the last game Feb. 14. Members celebrated over a chicken dinner Feb. 18.

Club members sold nightshirts for $2 during March and began practice for the district track meet.

Taking advantage of a fast break, Paula Jarnecke fires for two points.

Gradisher takes Top Kat 'Ugly Man' title

Top Kat president Ruby Clarke and treasurer Joanie Mau attach a spirit poster to wall on the main landing preceding the Clark-HHS basketball encounter.

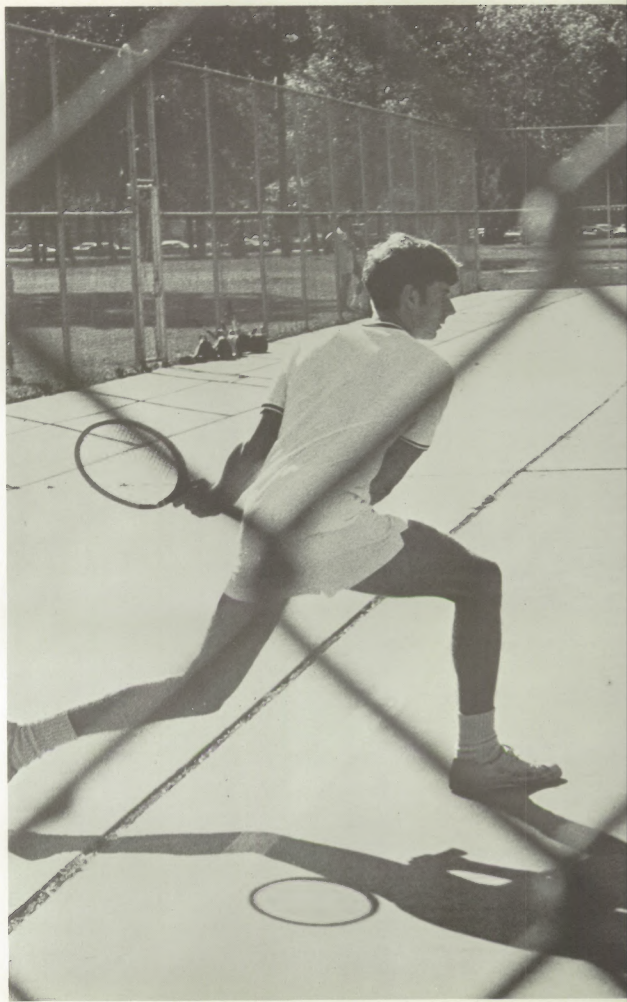

With candy, bake sales and Ugly Man contest, Top Kat clubbers earned money to charter buses to away football, basketball games.

Top Kats netted $53 in their annual Ugly Man contest Feb. 2-6. Eight teachers competed for the title. With one cent counting as on vote, students elected Mr. Frank Gradisher the winner with $19.53. Club treasurer Joan Mau presented him with a certificate at halftime of the HHS-Tech game.

Club also plastered walls with posters heralding athletic events.

Inspecting caricatures of Ugly Man nominees, Rick Smith and Bill Gillespie drop one cent votes into fishbowl.

Cheerleaders organize pep, flash section

Spurring school spirit, cheerleaders formed a pep bloc and peddled "Happiness is Victory" pins.

Varsity squad attended a cheering camp at Ferris State College in Big Rapids, Mich., Aug. 3-8. They won first place in pep rally and fourth in cheering competition.

To defray costs of camp and new uniforms, yell-leaders sponsored two summer carwashes, four bake sales and a door-to-door egg sale.

Incorporating purple and white flashcards during cheers, pep bloc yelled at home basketball games.

Gridders suffer injuries, post 4-4-2 slate

Despite injuries to several key players, HHS football team finished the year with a 4-4-2 slate.

First injury came before summer practice when co-captain Jim Fisher severed his right hand tendons.

Morton Gov-O-Rama opened the season Aug. 30 with the Cats beating Gavit 6-0 and Tech 7-0. Footballers upset state ranked Bishop Noll Sept. 13 and earned the 18th spot among the state's top 20 teams in the AP poll the following week.

Team's worst setback came the final two minutes of the Whiting game when quarterback Don Petska suffered a shoulder separation. Senior Dennis Creasbaum filled his spot for two games until sophomore John Visnyak replaced him for the rest of the season's matches.

Because of racial disturbances among Tech students, HHS played its homecoming game against Tech in the afternoon. Wildcats' 16-0 loss dimmed chances of winning the Lake Shore Conference championship. The Tech game also brought gridgers another injury when half-back Bob Lukowski broke his hand.

Statistically, Wildcats totaled 1264 yds. rushing while their opponents rushed for 1473 yds. Lukowski and Terry Eitel led team in rushing with 344 yds., 327 yds.

In passing, gridmen gained 595 yds. while yielding 606 yds. to their opponents. Again Lukowski led in pass receiving with 176 yds.

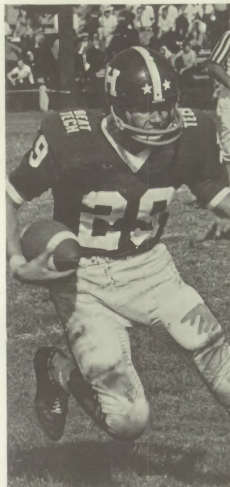

Sophomore Joe Kaminski headed the team with four interceptions.

Hammond Times named defensive tackle Barry Botruff to its all-star team. He led the team defensively with 35 tackles, 16 assists and one pass interception.

Varsity football coaches named Lukowski and Fisher most valuable back and lineman. Petska received the outstanding performer trophy and Botruff won the "Big Sticker" award for his defensive efforts.

After capturing the Lake Shore conference championship, varsity cross country team ended the year with 10 wins and eight losses.

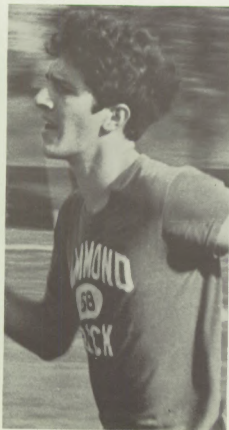

For the 10th consecutive year, HHS harriers won the city meet.

With Jesse Reyes, Roland Parrish, Ron Willis and Vincent Salazar running in the top sports, HHS in its first conference meet defeated Morton, Tech and Clark. A spike injury forced high scorer Willis to drop out of the Hobart meet.

Coach Bob Jackson named Jesse Reyes most consistent runner and David Salazar best mental attitude winner at the fall sports banquet.

Frosh-soph harriers chalked up a 12-4 season slate. In an unscheduled meet at Hobart, Wildcats placed fourth out of 10 teams.

Undefeated sectional victors take tennis conference title

In an unblemished season of 9-0, HHS netmen won their fifth consecutive conference championship as well as the sectional title.

Cats won by shutouts all of their nine meets except the Gavitt meet. In that one, Gavitt's Reed Hayne defeated Bob Eckstein in singles.

Racketmen dominated the sectionals with Eckstein and Kitchell defeating Bill Stuart and Stan Levin in the doubles finals. HHS tallied 29 points to top Munster's 25. Advancing to the regionals, team of Kitchell and Eckstein came in second, losing to Lafayette.

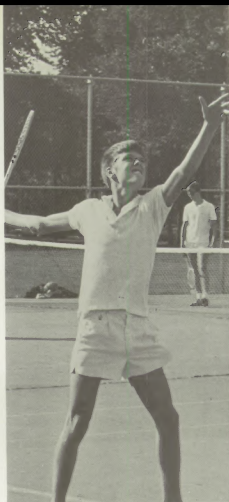

Coach Hugh Dawson named Kitchell and Eckstein as the MVP's.

Getting a pick from John Jelks, Terry Eitel keeps ball from Tech defender.

Finishing 6-15, varsity basketballers turned in their worst record since a 5-16 slate in 1958.

Eight losses came against teams ranked in the AP state poll sometime during the season. Teams included EC Roosevelt, Michigan City and EC Washington, ranked first, fourth and fifth in the final poll.

After splitting their first two contests, Wildcats lost five in a row before defeating Hobart Jan. 6 in overtime. Win came with two free throws by senior Robert Eckstein with no time on the clock.

First home victory came against Griffith Jan. 17 with Eckstein sinking the winning point on the last of three free throws resulting from three Panther technicals.

Junior Don Simerly's free throw with no time on the clock cinched the 51-50 Whiting game Jan. 23.

With :06 left, Eckstein popped in a 15-ft. corner shot to give HHS its 67-65 upset over Gavit.

EC Roosevelt and All-American Jim Bradley held cagers to season's lowest point total Feb. 13.

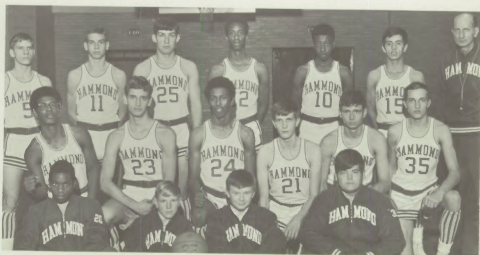

Although Cats canned more field goals, HHS lost to Gavit 61-59 in the Feb. 25 sectional. HHS converted 13 of 26 free throws.

Dribblers averaged 55.4 points a game while allowing opponents 69.2 points. With 14 foul-outs, Wildcats committed 387 fouls to their rivals' 351 and eight foul-outs.

Wrestlers claim eighth place in sectionals

Varsity wrestlers compiled a record of 11 wins and four losses, their best performance since 1963.

Cats scored an upset by defeating Munster, Noll and TF North in a home quadrangular meet Dec. 20.

In a meet televised by channel 50, matmen fell to Hobart 37-7.

New year found grapplers winning five consecutive dual meets. Led by 185-lb. sophomore Lynn Mamula, team placed second to Hobart in the Morton invitational.

Matmen placed eighth in sectionals with Pete Chintis taking second, Ron Hembree and Dave Salazar thirds; Dick Kitchell, fourth.

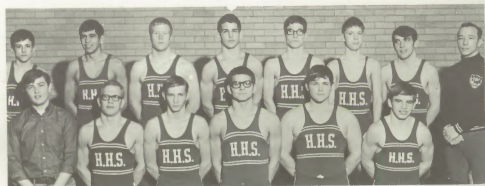

After losing their first two matches, B teamers won seven in a row, ending up with a 7-3 slate.

In a neutral position, Barry Botruff readies for a tie-up against a Munsterite.

Golfers win city, conference titles;

Teeh's attack threatens the Wildcats' lead as Dick Kitchell and coach Frank Carroll plot team's defensive maneuvers.

While their soccer colleagues kicked into a 3-4-1 record, 1969 golfers compiled a 17-4 slate and captured city and conference titles.

In winning the golf conference championship, Wildcats went 8-0.

After the sectional, however, they gained revenge by defeating the sectional champions, Munster.

Golfers played their home matches at Lake Hills Country Club.

On the soccer field, the defending champions, Wildcats, surrendered their city title to Morton.

Rain and cold weather forced soccer play into two segments. Thus HHS played its first four games within a nine-day span in April, and its second four games within an eight-day span in May.

Diamondmen capture sectional, regional

Baseball team captured sectional and regional crowns in Indiana's high school tournament for the first time in HHS history, and posted a 16-8 slate in 1969.

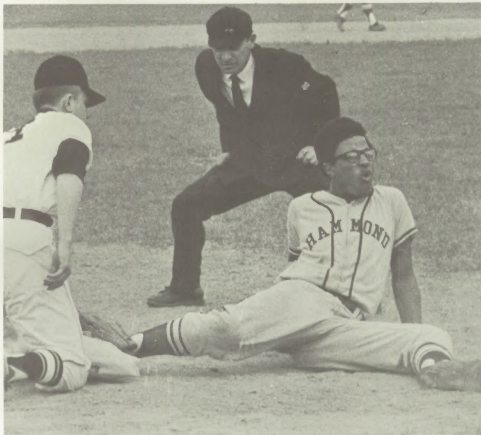

Entering the Hammond city tourney with a 2-3 slate, team defeated Gavit 7-6 in the first game. Despite Chuck Mauder's two-run homer, Wildcat hardballers lost to Tech 5-4 in the championship game.

Sophomore pitcher Terry Eitel threw a no-hitter to defeat Gavit 3-0 in the championship game of the Hammond sectional. Hardballers had gained entrance into that game by shutting out Tech, Noll.

First game of the regionals found Rick Stanford also pitching a no-hitter as HHS blanked Benton Central 1-0. Team won the regional title by beating Crown Point 5-3.

Traveling to South Bend for their first appearance in the semi-state contest, HHS fell to East Gary 1-0.

HHS formed a B team squad for the first time in several years. Team won three games and lost two.

Sneaking his foot beneath the Tiger's tag, Glenn Earl splits into third base.

Cindermen capture Alliance, relay crowns

With Mr. Robert Jackson coaching his first year, 1969 varsity track team broke records and won championships to finish 11-2.

First indoor meet at Munster found Ed Nondorf breaking a field-house record with an 11-ft. vault. Dave Schmueser set a school record in the 440-yd. dash. In the Munster invitational, mile relay team set a meet record with 3:36.6. Two-mile relay team also broke a meet record with 8:30.0. For the 24th consecutive year, HHS tracksters won the city indoor crown.

Switching to the outdoor track, cindermen placed first in the Alliance meet and the Hammond relays. Thinlyclads finished sixth in sectionals with Chris Tyler, 100-yd. dash; Moses Brooks, broad jump; and Schmueser, 440-yd. dash; going on to regionals. Schmueser placed fourth in regionals. Varsity team ended season by capturing the city championship crown at Gavit.

Placing second in the Alliance meet and first in their division in the city meet, frosh-soph team posted an 8-2 record. Freshmen ran first in the city frosh meet.

Scholars groaning after getting report cards, janitress sweeping in an empty hall, teachers ripping admits off packs, cooks clanging kitchen cutlery, a girl's maxi skirt brushing on the floor, office secretaries answering phone calls, friends goodbying "See ya tomorrow"—sights and sounds of INDIVIDUALS.

Teacher strike initiates new school chief

Strikes, elections, personnel changes, honors and social events provided headlines for the school board, administration, teachers.

Dr. Robert Medcalf replaced the retired Dr. Oliver Rapp as school superintendent in summer. The new chief had little time to relax as teachers went on strike Sept. 2. School board and teachers agreed in time to begin school Sept. 3.

Looking at school construction needs, Dr. Medcalf got board approval for his plan to renovate and build additions for HHS at a cost of $2.2 million by 1972. The school board thereby junked a former plan to merge HHS and Clark.

In an election for their sole bargaining agent, teachers again chose Hammond Teachers Assn. over the Hammond Federation of Teachers.

In accordance with the City's teacher contract, HHS established a faculty policy committee to determine procedures affecting HHS teachers. Committee consisted of administrators and representatives of the two teacher organizations.

Faculty listed 66 teachers and administrators. Five of the teachers worked part-time at HHS.

HHS personnel changes included new department chairmen: Mrs. Margaret Mertens, English; Mr. Wayne Pecher, math; Mr. James Soderquist, social studies. Miss Catalina Restrepo returned in February after a leave for PhD study. Mrs. Cynthia Pfanstiel had replaced her. Mr. Hugh Dawson resigned as tennis and basketball coach in March but continued teaching.

Miss Oza Cunningham, who had retired as dramatics director in the summer of 1969, died Nov. 16.

Mr. Frank Carroll and Mrs. Janice Montgomery earned master's degrees. Mr. Frank Gradisher, Miss Judy Richter, Mr. Tom Schwartz, Mr. Bob Urlick worked on master's.

Four men received honors. For example, Indiana U. asked Mr. Tom Schwartz to serve as an instructor for high school students spending summers '69 and '70 in Germany for IU foreign language honor program.

Mr. Bernie Krueger received a service award from the Hammond safety council in February. During the same month, Hammond PTA council honored Mr. Lawrence Lundgren for service to youth. Hammond athletic department recognized Mr. Ted Fruehling's 32 years of handling HHS sports funds by presenting him a plaque at the final sectional basketball contest.

Moving into the social realm, faculty welcomed their new colleagues with a picnic at Thornton Woods in the fall. Retirees received plaudits at the retirement dinner May 19. Christmas party at the Log in December gave them another occasion for socializing.

Miss Anna Moriconi became Mrs. Robert Urlick in October. Mr. Leroy Harwell, Mr. Fred Monberg and Mr. Bill Strater all celebrated the birth of sons during the year.

To help the PTA raise money for a scholarship and the post-prom party, the faculty presented "How to Propose" at the PTA spaghetti supper March 6. This play showed a history of marriage proposals.

School staffs man brooms, spoons, pens

Smoothing school operation, custodians, cooks and clerical workers served students and faculty.

Cooks prepared lunches for about 700 students and teachers daily. Using about 4500 loaves of bread, 32,000 half-pints of milk and 24,000 lbs. of meat a year, kitcheners made both hot and cold lunches.

Office staffers belonged to Hammond Educational Secretaries Assn. HHS head clerk Mrs. Joan Pawenski served as group's vice president.

Custodians' union negotiated for a new contract with the board of education in early part of 1970.

Sweeping through the after-school solitude of a home economics room, Mrs. Mary Perroni removes sewing debris.

HHS enrolls largest class in four years

Freshman class officials—Mr. Jay Wood, sponsor; Martha Mamula, secretary; Marta Shuya, vice president; Miss Alice Bollin, sponsor; Paul House, president; Rich McHie, treasurer.

Composing the largest freshman class since 1965, 390 ninth-graders familiarized themselves with Wildcat surroundings in the fall.

Freshmen gathered in the cafeteria Aug. 28 for orientation. There administration and Association officers explained rules and regulations. Frosh also posed for ID pictures and received schedules.

In their first class activity, '73'ers built a large stop sign for their homecoming float titled "Stop! This is Wildcat Country."

Class of '73 tried their hands at voting: electing officers and house representatives in the fall.

NEDT, rings, float spark 1970 for sophs

Leaving their greenhorn year behind them, 309 members of the sophomore class returned to HHS in the fall, working on their homecoming float and ordering class rings.

Sophomores' homecoming float, entitled "Wildcats' Game," featured a giant tic-tac-toe board.

Committee of class officers and other sophomores chose Herff-Jones Co. to manufacture their class rings Dec. 16. All sophomores voted on styles Jan. 6, selecting the college oval as the official ring. They got their rings in April.

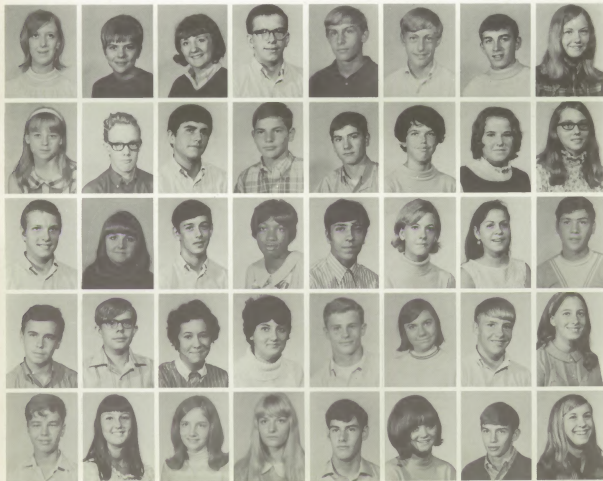

One hundred twenty-five '72'ers participated in the NEDT (National Educational Development Test) Feb. 17. Test prepared them for next year's National Merit test.

Because of needed funds, class raised its dues from 50¢ to $1.

Class of '72 planned a beach party at Dunes state park in May.

'A Time for Us' titles junior-senior prom

Upon attaining the status of upperclassmen, 309 juniors planned floats, Washington trip and prom.

Class of '71 constructed a red train engine for their homecoming parade entry, "Victory Bound."

Juniors joined upperclassmen from other city high schools on the annual Washington trip Oct. 21-27.

After forming committees and electing chairmen Dec. 9, junior class began making arrangements for the prom and post-prom. They rented Scherwood Club for the May 15 event. Working with the theme "A Time for Us" decorators created a Romeo and Juliet atmosphere.

Juniors learned their class rankings. Looking ahead to college, they took the Scholastic Aptitude and National Merit examinations.

Honors day, senior banquet, baccalaureate,

Entering their last year at HHS, members of the senior class began activities by building their homecoming entry, "Wreck Tech."

End of first semester found '70-ers ordering their caps and gowns and announcements from Collegiate Cap and L. G. Balfour companies.

Senior officers and sponsors selected "Flowers for Algernon," the stage version of the movie "Charly," for their class play March 20.

Outstanding scholars and athletes received recognition at senior honors day auditorium May 20. Class counselor Mr. Herb Wattam introduced scholarship winners.

Wrapping up their high school years, 260 '70'ers attended baccalaureate May 31, senior-faculty banquet June 1, commencement June 4.

Advertising

Revolving doors whooshing in a department store, waitresses inquiring "May I take your order?" shopping baskets rattling, store bells bonging, french fries crackling in hot grease, water glasses clinking, new car's engines purring, hangers scraping against dress racks—sights and sounds of ADVERTISING.

Pepsi pours festive notes into any time

Adding zip to any occasion, any time, Pepsi Cola found its way into Wildcats' shopping carts, home refrigerators and picnic baskets.

Pepsi made the fun scene, the young scene with its clean, sparkling taste, its go-well-with-anything flavor. Pepsi had a lot to give to people with a lot to live, the swingers, the Pepsi generation.

Pepsi Cola, the pop for all seasons, puts that extra special push into Linda Horsley, Walter Schneider, Betsy Erb and Bob Fisher's winter sled excursion.

Pepsi enlivens the early spring patio party atmosphere for Ric Gonzalez, Dave Hanus, Jackie Perez and Barb Kurzydym.

Area restaurants strive to stop hunger

Four area restaurants helped to appease appetites at lunch or any time when hunger struck Wildcats.

Maid Rite provided a familiar lunch gathering spot with its close to school location at 5815 Calumet.

Calumet shopping center patrons could stop in for snacks, lunch or dinner at Anton's Restaurant.

Whoppers and trimmings lured hungry folks to Burger Kings in Calumet City, Munster, Highland.

A&W Drive-O-Matic at 7206 Calumet featured its famous root beer to accompany snacks or full meals.

Maid Rite

Snacking at Maid Rite's after a basketball game, sophomores Fred Baginski, Sue McClure, Donielle Kuipers and Bob Brunner relish side orders of french fries and malts.

Burger King

Burger King lunch set, juniors Patti McCauley, Barb Siwy, Kathy Schmal, Laura Clayton, Sue Michaw and Karen Walker, feast on whoppers and cokes while discussing night plans.

Anton's Restaurant

During a shopping expedition in Munster, juniors Joyce Duncan, Bob Lukowski, Beth Webb and Randy Dellenbach dine in the pleasant surroundings of Anton's Restaurant.

A&W Drive-O-Matic

Located across from HHS, Hi Fi Studio photographed couples at Luesella's Dec. 26 semi-formal dance.

Kaye & Roach Realtors did a land office business at 7027 Calumet.

New on the region scene, Roger's South Calumet Motors dealt in used Cadillacs and other luxury autos.

From his office across the street from HHS in city hall, Mayor Joseph Klen oversaw city government, yet took time to talk with touring students and boost HHS activities.

Before heading the HHS homecoming parade, Hammond mayor Joseph Klen, principal Dr. F.K. Feuerbach, Association co-sponsor Mrs. Mary Alice Hannon and assistant principal Mr. Dennis Burdock complete their introductions.

AN OPPORTUNITY TO SERVE

An opportunity to serve awaits industrious young men and women at Northern Indiana Public Service Company. As one of the top gas and electric distribution utilities in the United States, NIPSCO is constantly looking for new processes and methods of efficient operation. These include atomic power generation, extra high voltage transmission, underground electric distribution, computerized system planning, underground storage of natural gas, community analyses and electronic data processing.

Ready to grow with a growing company?

IN AN ATMOSPHERE OF GROWTH

NIPSCO is one of the highest-paying utilities in the State of Indiana. Its attractive employee benefit package—tuition refund plan, vacations, holidays, life insurance, comprehensive medical insurance, pensions, etc.—provides an atmosphere for individual growth. Fifteen leading colleges and universities are strategically located throughout its service area with others available in the greater Chicago area. Drop in. We'll be glad to talk jobs with you.

Backe Insurance Agency

Backed by Backe Insurance, Charles Harville doesn't worry about any bad break.

Establishments in the south part of the HHS attendance area made available an array of services.

Backe Insurance, 738 173rd St., an independent agent, sold protection of all kinds: automobile, fire, life, homeowners, mortgage.

Across the way at 733 173rd St., Terry's Aquarium specialized in tropical fish, paraphernalia for aquariums and supplies for pets.

Open House Florist, 6604 Jackson Ave., a member of Teleflora for flowers by wire, arranged cut flowers for corsages, centerpieces, bouquets; weddings, funerals and holidays. The shop also stocked a selection of giftware and plants.

Friendly neighborhood cleaning came from Riddle's Cleaners, 603 163rd St. A family firm with facilities on the premises, Riddle's gave clothes the attentive care that hallmarks quality drycleaning.

In the nightly ritual after a yearbook work session, staffers JoAnne Keeler, Monica Leeney, Nicki Solan, Mary Leas, Alison Blaine, Bonnie Frevert and Miss Judy Richter decide in what order to pile into Miss Richter's car before going home.

Yearbook production generates memories

Room 18, Apt. D and Bander-snatch set scenes for a variety of happenings as staff finished Dunes.

Staffers shared laughs over another year of tripping over sales total, donning Pam's maxi, driving with Harry, checking for fluid, re-punctuating Christmas songs, riding home, syllabifying; birthday parties, the pencil test, sixth grade occurrences and every other: Tuesday after school with Old Weird Herald.

Pride swelled with a record of 11 pages in a school day. Staff fretted over meeting the April 15 deadline and then finished early. We cried over absent pictures, late headline type and incorrect crop marks. School disruptions and Miss Richter's car accidents shook us.

People produced humor: M.K. and N.M.'s problems, neighbors, Larry, Latin lover, couples, Linda who?, Maude and Henry, the lady with her apron and the seamstress.

As staffers burned 6:30 oil, we argued over origin of mayonnaise and became adept at hiding brownies, Screaming Yellow Zonkers, vanilla shakes with hot chocolate, windowed pop and scrumptious chocolate chip cookies from track star.

Monica's mosaic wart, tape and grace; Bonnie's typewriter cord; perdididdles; dogs; Pink Pearl erasers; Miss R's 40 million specs; imitations; density; sights, sounds, smells; soap operas furthered mirth.

Everyone came down with foot-in-mouth disease at least once. Alison's nephew's, Bonnie's and Mary's slips of the tongue headed the list of goofs along with Miss Richter's butcher's ax and unspoken ones.

Familiar quotes included "You know I don't like those kinds of jokes!" "Harry's not there," "Yes, but we don't charge," "A page will be done!" "Stupid much?"

"By de Light of Dunes' top 176," "I Be Dreaming," "Never Leave Me" and "Louie, Louie" were the top four hits of Dunes' top 176.

To the following copy writers, outline writers and section editors—Faye Rhynne, Dennis Hensley, Linda Heady, Keith Speaks, Doris Green, Diane Warner, Sandi Edmond, Pam Mitchell, Sue Weaver, Sylvia Sang, Joni Sullivan and Bob Zacny—editor Bonnie Frevert says thanks.

Special thanks go to Mary Leas for layouts, Nicki Solan for her ad salesmanship, Karen Mauder for her help everywhere, Alison Blaine for the faculty section and her loyalty, Eunice Burns for senior section, JoAnne Keeler for her patience and perseverance, and Harry Dudzik of Bodie's for pictures.

Without exceptional cooperation from copy editor Monica Leeney and adviser Miss Judy Richter, the Dunes couldn't have gone to press. The editor thanks Monica for her vast quantities of quality copy and unfailing support and Miss Richter for infinite patience and advice.
